

Full name at birth:Cris Pedersen

Who are you ? Usual expression:Openness (9)

Idealistic, altruistic, humanistic, artistic, a patron of the arts and very open-minded. Enjoys travelling, is tolerant, faithful, generous, intuitive, sensitive to the feelings of others, but also a bit of a dreamer, over-excitabile, has a particular form of egoism tinged with pride, an excessive need for affection, bouts of depression, emotional or gullible, sometimes a wasted creativity.

NB : For your information, this number stems from 63, which in the Tarot cards, symbolises " Nine of Swords " - solitary way and possible taste for mystery. 63 is often unmarried. Possible unfortunate fate or hidden enemies. You must keep your cool, have patience, be prudent and discrete. With moral strength, cold blood and an ideal you will surmount adversity. But it will certainly be long and difficult. Projects can succeed thanks to a personal discipline and the ability to use bad situations positively. The itinerary is complicated, but if the emotions are controlled, you will get a good result.

What do you like ? Spiritual Aspiration:Diplomacy (6)

Qualities : A strong desire for harmony, and to be in a warm, friendly atmosphere. The search for comfort, security, and beauty. Attracted towards the arts. Wants to help, advise, listen. Generally an easy-going and responsible person.

Possible faults : Forgets ones own strength in being too occupied with others. There is sometimes weakness of character because of taking pleasure in comforts and being too romantic.

NB : For your information, this number stems from 24, which in the Tarot cards, symbolises "Queen of Wands" - the search for harmony. Love, family, sense of responsibility and respect of values are priorities. In spite of the desire for affective stability, there is a risk of sentimental difficulties, even the estrangement of a loved one with this vibration. Sometimes linked to heavy obligations or the necessity to make sacrifices in order to move forward. The future of 24 is frequently linked to a feminine aid (stimulating). Importance of feminine relationships in professional advancement or material success ; also the possibility of help from a woman in improving the path of sentimental growth. 24 needs to get rid of a conception of life which is too material.

How do you react ? Psychological Core:Communication (3)

A sociable person, amusing, communicative (sometimes a bit too much so) and often very creative. Some negative points : the desire to be the center of attention and thus difficulties to accept the stimulation of competition or the presence of competitors. A tendency to do too many things at once and finish none of them. The capacity of defending yourself but mostly with gesticulation. A professor of persuasion, but weaken when flattered. Otherwise, depressed when others dare to ignore you. Prone to underhand behaviour and also to hold excessive grudges.

NB : For your information, this number stems from 39, which in the Tarot cards, symbolises "Knight of Cups". Love is a priority. Vitality and charm but the sentimental balance stay fragile. This number exposes rivalries and indecision, especially in the sentimental area. Mutual confidence can be put to the test (taste for adventure, ambiguity, flirtation or competition). The 39 must learn to communicate better, to express it's desires or problems. In the area of material projects, there can be success thanks to good creativity, expression facilities, communication skills and relationships. However, effort is necessary.

Number of letters 12

It is the number of letters making up your first names and surname, at birth. It gives a supplementary influence, although secondary, on your life. In a way it is the aura that your name gives off. If you must chose the name of your child (or your enterprise) don't forget to take it into account ! Also if the length of your first name(s) is longer than your surname, it will favour the affirmation of your individuality. If it is the other way around, the influence of family heritage could be more prominent.

You have 12 letters in your full name. A creative and responsible aura. Strong creativity and ease for expression. Open mind and able to reason. Positive sentimental life. Energy. On the other hand, unwanted responsibilities or obligations that can lead to unstable or tricky situations where you must partially support the consequences of stupidity and inertia from others. Progression is possible if you make the right choices, and understand things better. Lucidity is necessary. You must be independent and learn to neutralise problems before they arrive (at the source).